BOARD DEVELOPMENT

1737 Georgetown Rd., Suite B | Hudson, OH 44236 | (330) 655-0531 | www.neo-rls.org

Trustees are at the heart of a library's relationship with its community.

They should be your library's best advocates and your most informed stewards of growth and success. However, many trustees and boards are unable to realize their potential because they lack necessary training and information regarding their duties and responsibilities. The Northeast Ohio Regional Library System offers effective and efficient Board Development training to help you create an environment of trustee professionalism.

NEO-RLS's Board Development training:

- Enables trustees to contribute their strengths appropriately for the success of the library
- Emphasizes the importance of Orientation and ongoing development
- Outlines the difference between governance and management
- Builds mutual respect and support
- Covers a wide variety of topics
- Customizable to suit your situation
- Suitable for new board members or as a refresher for more seasoned trustees

The Core Planning Track (a 4-hour Board Retreat) is recommended for all libraries but may be customized further as needed. The Premium Planning Track (two 4-hour Board Retreats) is recommended for libraries with little or no experience in Board Development training, with new Administration or with new Board members.

For more information on NEO-RLS's Board Development training, contact Betsy Lantz, Executive Director, at betsy.lantz@neo-rls.org or 330-655-0531, ext. 101.

Board Development Training Services Defined

Getting Started as a Board Member: A key component of an effective board member occurs the moment they are elected or appointed. New board members are ready to serve and orientation is critical to making them feel comfortable and necessary. NEO-RLS will guide your board through the steps of an effective orientation program for new trustees, discuss the job description for trustees and for the Executive Director, define tasks and responsibilities, and underline the importance of the various relationships between trustees and others.

The Meetings: Efficient and effective meetings keep trustees engaged, ensure compliance with bylaws and state laws, and facilitate decision-making as a group. NEO-RLS will explain open public meetings, creation of agendas, Executive sessions, managing public comment, making decisions and follow-through.

Budgets: Library budgets and funding are complicated and trustees need to become familiar with their library's finances in order to make wise decisions. NEO-RLS will clarify ongoing fiscal responsibilities.

Policy Development: Well developed policies are critical to the operational and strategic success of a library and trustees spend a lot of time creating and reviewing policies. NEO-RLS will walk your trustees through the process of creating effective policies and the different types of policies.

Strategic Planning: One of the most important responsibilities of a board is that of strategic planning. The reasons for strategic planning will be outlined along with the roles of the board, Executive Director, and staff.

Evaluation: Ongoing evaluation is necessary and leads to greater success. NEO-RLS will work with your trustees on methods for evaluating the Executive Director and themselves.

Advocacy: Advocacy is a basic board responsibility. NEO-RLS will review the various types of advocacy and what trustees need to know to be compelling advocates for their library.
