

Display of Holiday Decorations

The library may decorate the building or grounds in an attractive manner to reflect the various holidays and celebrations of the community. In its decorations, it will refrain from using any symbols or items that are specifically religious.

The following are the types of decorations that may be used: Santa Claus, Easter bunnies, Easter eggs, candy canes, snowmen, wreaths, Christmas trees with ornaments that are not representations of religious figures or objects, Chanukah dreidels, happy holidays signs or banners for Christmas Chanukah, Kwanza and Easter.

The following are examples of types of decorations that will not be used: nativity scenes, crosses, crucifixes, menorahs, or other clearly religious icons and symbols including those of other religions not specifically mentioned in this policy.

Secular decorations may be displayed for other holidays such as Valentine's Day, the 4th of July, Halloween, Thanksgiving, etc.
