NEW SUPERVISORS' ACADEMY

Becoming a supervisor adds new and different challenges to your workday regardless of the type or size of library you work in. The New Supervisors' Academy's courses will provide you with the skills and confidence you need to handle the many and varied challenges of being a supervisor. Programs will focus on three key areas: leadership, communication and staff development. The Academy is appropriate for new supervisors in multi-type libraries and for those who want a refresher.

Archives of live webinars will be available at your convenience for those attending the Academy in its entirety and experiencing a scheduling conflict. Live webinars will be available individually for registration for those not attending the Academy in its entirety.
