

About Pronunciator

You can learn 80 languages in any of 50 languages with Pronunciator. That's 4,000 possible course combinations!

Pronunciator also offers the largest ESL curriculum on the planet, with courses for 50 non-English languages.

And Pronunciator brings all features and functionality to your favorite device (browser, tablet, or phone).

With learning through music, feature films, poetry, and even plays, Pronunciator is the most comprehensive and engaging language-learning resource available.

There is even a Custom Course Designer for educators to create and deploy language courses to their students.
